

PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD'S DECISION

APPELLANT: T.W. Antos
DOCKET NO.: 05-20772.001-C-1 through 05-20772.006-C-1
PARCEL NO.: See Below

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are T.W. Antos, the appellant, by attorney Gregory J. Lafakis of Liston & Lafakis, P.C., Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

The subject property is improved with a one-story commercial building of masonry construction containing 7,840 square feet of building area. The building is 15 years old and is located on a 43,562 square foot site in Wheeling, Wheeling Township, Cook County

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. In support of this overvaluation argument the appellant submitted an appraisal estimating the subject property had a market value of $465,000 as of January 1, 2004. The appellant submitted the final decision issued by the Cook County Board of Review establishing a total assessment for the subject of $211,999, which reflects a market value of approximately $557,892 using the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance level of assessments for class 5A property of 38%. The appellant also disclosed the subject property was the subject matter of an appeal before the Property Tax Appeal Board the prior year under Docket No. 04-22417.001-C-1 through 04-22417.006-C-1. In that appeal, the Property Tax Appeal Board issued a decision based upon an agreement of the parties to the appeal reducing the assessment to $193,651. Based on this evidence the appellant

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds a reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

requested the subject's assessment be reduced to reflect the appraised value.

The board of review did not submit its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" or any evidence in support of its assessed valuation of the subject property.

After reviewing the record and considering the evidence, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal. The Board further finds the evidence in the record supports a reduction in the subject's assessment.

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. National City Bank of Michigan/Illinois v. Illinois Property Tax Appeal Board, 331 Ill.App.3d 1038 (3rd Dist. 2002). The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The appellant in this appeal submitted an appraisal estimating the subject property had a market value of $465,000 as of January 1, 2004. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of approximately $557,892 using the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance level of assessments for class 5A commercial property of 38%. The board of review did not submit any evidence in support of its assessment of the subject property or to refute the appellant's argument as required by Section 1910.40(a) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board and is found to be in default pursuant to section 1910.69(a) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board.

Additionally, the appellant disclosed the subject property was the subject matter of an appeal before the Property Tax Appeal Board the prior year under Docket No. Docket No. 04-22417.001-C-1 through 04-22417.006-C-1. In that appeal, the Property Tax Appeal Board issued a decision based upon an agreement of the parties to the appeal reducing the assessment to $193,651. Based on this record, the Board finds that the assessment as established in the prior year's appeal, which is in the same assessment cycle as this appeal, is appropriate.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
